Anawim believes that anyone can find themselves in difficulty or experience trauma – whether that's living in an abusive relationship, battling addiction, involved in crime or sex work, or simply struggling with day to day life. Anawim seeks to support women who are vulnerable due to poverty, homelessness, abuse, rape, addictions, and may be drawn into prostitution and/or offending as a consequence. Anawim works in close partnership with a number of agencies, including Probation, Social Care, health and education providers, employers, the criminal justice system and the wider community. All staff, whether working in a paid or voluntary capacity, are expected to respect and work to the core values of respecting others, valuing all, and belief in the possibility of a life lived to the full.

Aim:

To provide specialist interventions for a minimum of 40 women per year women who have high levels of vulnerability and who are deemed to have multiple or complex needs including those with children under safeguarding plans. Some will be using substances, often to dull the effects of trauma due to sexual exploitation, violence and abuse. These women often require multi-agency working, are often at risk of offending, hospital or mental health admission. To build your specialist knowledge in this area and share learning and resources with the rest of the staff team. To build up contacts with other agencies which support mothers – stay & Play, specialist midwives, baby massage, playgroups etc. around the city.
