

VACANCY NOTICE

Trustee (People & Development)

Anawim Birmingham

Join us!

We're looking for someone to join our Board of Trustees with the background to fulfil the role of Trustee who will also Chair our People & Development Committee.

We are looking for someone who is CIPD qualified with a background in HR and who has sound knowledge of employment law, policy and practice. We would welcome someone from any industry, however if you have experience of the third sector, that would be preferred. You do not need to have experience as a committee Chair as training and support will be provided.

More information about us and about the role can be found in the recruitment pack attached to this advert.

Don't miss this opportunity to get involved in Anawim. Being a Trustee will help us to provide an outstanding service, to support women who are vulnerable and to provide them and their children with opportunities to reach their full potential. Trustees are unremunerated but travel and other costs associated with carrying out the role may be reimbursed and all trustees can expect to receive training and support.

If you're interested in becoming a Trustee, please send us an expression of interest describing your professional background and what you think you would bring to the role. Your expression of interest should not exceed 1000 words and should be sent to the Company Secretary [LizzieAbderrahim@anawim.co.uk] by the deadline: 21st August 2022.
