Anawim works closely with National Probation Service. Women become involved in the Criminal Justice System for a complex range of reasons. In our gender specific services, we provide holistic support to women by women, to overcome challenges and address needs, enabling them to successfully move-on from services and live fulfilling, crime free flourishing lives. The role will include around one day a week in-reach into HMP Drake Hall & HMP Foston Hall to make contact with women & subsequently ensure they resettle successfully and into our community services on release.

We support women with overcoming issues around their: Personal Wellbeing, accommodation, Finance, Benefits and Debts, Employment, Training and Education, Family and Significant Others, Lifestyle and Associates, Social Inclusion, Dependency and Recovery.

We will support women to build upon their strengths and work through any barriers that are preventing them from progressing and achieving their potential.

Anawim Caseworkers assigned to the Criminal Justice Services team will deliver therapeutic group work, undertake one-to-one sessions, community asset building and psycho-social interventions that support and enable women to make positive changes to their lifestyle.
